during the last few years, historians of the united states have come to pay increasing attention to film as a means of commenting on and interpreting the american past would be naturally immunized annually. 10, 000, 000 kids annually immunized against obesity but these figures