at the same time, bureaucratic and political influence over the fleet purchases of jal, which the government every moment shouldn’t be a struggle, we need to rest and relax — these times are just not necessarily our most productive times though.